Monday Daytime (Abib/Nisan 12th) – 2nd day of the week

- The Pharisees examine Jesus.
- The widow's mites.

Reflection Reading fifth day:

*"In sacrifice and offering you have not delighted,
but you have given me an open ear.
Burnt offering and sin offering
you have not required.
Then I said, "Behold, I have come;
in the scroll of the book it is written of me:
I delight to do your will, O my God;
your law is within my heart."
Psalm 40:6-8*

"Then I said, 'Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.'"
Hebrews 10:7

Prayer on the fifth day:

Daily Exercise - Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina is a Latin term that means "divine reading." It is a way or method of reading the Scriptures in such a manner that facilitates the reader in receiving a "specific word" from God. The practice was developed early in the church's history with Origen first expressing its principles around 220 AD. The system consists of four parts: reading, meditation, prayer and contemplation. It may be practiced privately or in a small group setting. There are four elements to be considered in preparing for this exercise:

1. Set aside enough time to complete the exercise so that you don't have to rush through it. Usually thirty minutes is adequate.
2. Find a quiet place free of distractions.
3. Read the Selected Passage Above of Scripture.
4. Transition from what you have been doing by calming you mind and body. This can be done by taking a few slow, deep breaths and inviting the Lord to speak to you through His word.

Reading

1. Read the passage aloud slowly a couple of times.
2. Be silent for one-to-two minutes.
3. Is there a word or phrase that is meaningful to you?
4. Repeat the word or phrase several times silently as if to memorize it.

* If in a group, share it in turn. Do not elaborate simply state what it is.

Meditation

1. Read the passage again.
2. Be silent for two to three minutes.
3. Think about how the reading applies or touches your life today.

* If in a group, share it in turn. Briefly state "I hear, I see, I feel ..."

Prayer

1. Talk with God about what he is showing you.

* If in a group, pray quietly.

Contemplation

1. Read the passage again.
2. Be silent for two to three minutes.
3. Reflect on "I believe God wants me to _____ today/this week/etc."

* If in a group, share in turn. At this point you can elaborate somewhat on what you believe God is telling you to do.

Study on the fifth day:

Chair of Moses – Lesson 45

"They said to each other, 'Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?' And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, saying, "The Lord has risen indeed!"
Luke 24:33
