

Prophecy in the News Update (10/7/2022):

Revelation 9:13-18 – ¹³ Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God, ¹⁴ saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.” ¹⁵ So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, were released to kill a third (2.4-Billion) of mankind (WWIII). ¹⁶ The number of mounted troops was twice ten thousand times ten thousand (a 200-million member army); I heard their number. ¹⁷ And this is how I saw the horses in my vision and those who rode them: they wore breastplates the color of fire and of sapphire and of sulfur, and the heads of the horses were like lions' heads, and fire and smoke and sulfur came out of their mouths. ¹⁸ By these three plagues a third (2.4-Billion) of mankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulfur coming out of their mouths (WWIII). . . . (note: this is not Armageddon, but WWIII, although Armageddon will include Russia as one of the primary agitators in the Battle against Israel in the Prophesied Battle of Armageddon 7-years later, just before the coming of the Messiah.)

 weapons, because his military is, you might say, significantly underperforming," Biden said during a Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee fundraiser in New York City on Thursday. "I don't think there's any such thing as the ability to easily use tactical nuclear weapons and not end up with armageddon."

weapons were used, although a third world war could be triggered even without the U.S. responding by using its own nuclear weapons.

“. . . a third world war might be triggered, as a U.S. strike on Russia might cause Moscow to retaliate . . . U.S. strategic men . . . to the President . . . have always assumed that we would respond with nuclear weapons to a nuclear attack . . . we need to use nuclear weapons in response to restoring nuclear deterrence . . . (and if) the U.S. (would) respond to a nuclear attack with another one, triggering a nuclear war.”

Last week, in the very speech in which he threatened to use nuclear weapons in Ukraine, Putin denounced the policies of Biden, the U.S., and the West as “Satanic.”

He also cited the Bible to declare that “those poisonous fruit have become visible, not only to people in Russia, but also many in the West,” reported the Associated Press.

“The dictatorship of the Western elites is directed against all societies, including the peoples of the Western countries themselves,” Putin said in a major address. “This is a complete denial of humanity, the overthrow of faith and traditional values. Indeed, the suppression of freedom itself has taken on the features of a religion: outright Satanism.”

Then Biden warned that Putin risked pulling the world into the Book of Revelation.

“We have not faced the prospect of Armageddon since Kennedy and the Cuban Missile Crisis,” the president said.

“I don't think there's any such thing as the ability to easily (use) a tactical nuclear weapon and not end up with Armageddon.”

Yet never in the 2,600 years since Ezekiel prophesied, have we seen Russia and Iran forming such an alliance.

Does this really mean Putin is “Gog”?

It's too early to draw conclusions: But it's fair to say Putin is “Gog-esque.”

Maybe he doesn't make it to his 71st birthday.

Maybe he's defeated in Ukraine and overthrown in Moscow.

But if Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin turns the tables and wins, fear over who he'll target next will only mount.

Certainly here in Jerusalem.
